Ag Coop Safety Leaders of Iowa Scholarship In Memory of Mark Hambleton

Multiple Scholarships awarded up to $3000.

Application Deadline: April 15, 2025

The Ag Coop Safety Leaders of Iowa is an organization of Safety professionals from across the State of Iowa. Our mission is to promote a safe working environment within the local agricultural organizations, as well as the advancement of agricultural safety personnel through continuing education and professional networking. We believe safety is not proprietary and work alongside industry leaders and regulators to better understand how to keep employees out of harm's way.

As a founding member of the Ag Coop Safety Leaders of Iowa (ACSLIA), Mark Hambleton was dedicated to the future of agricultural safety and those working in and around the Ag industry. Mark served as an officer in ACSLIA for many years and as the Safety Director of Pro Cooperative, he was one of the first in the nation to arrange for his cooperative to donate grain bin cofferdams to local fire departments for grain bin rescues. In honor of his dedication to the future of AG Safety, ACSLIA is proud to offer this scholarship application in the memory of Mark Hambleton.

The Ag Coop Safety Leaders of Iowa Scholarships are open to high school Seniors looking to further their career in an Agriculture or Safety related field and must be planning to attend college, university, or trade school during the upcoming school year.

Applicants will be required to fill out the application and submit an essay on "What does Ag Safety mean to you?". One letter of recommendation from a non-family member is also required.

Downloadable forms are available at www.acsdia.org/scholarship.html.
